

Never give up!

CAMP RULES

- Arrive at the camp 15 minutes before we start so you can get ready and be on time for your training. It is important to respect the schedules and planning of the activities.
- Respect all the people who participate in the camp: coaches, monitors, colleagues, sports center staff, ...
- Pay attention to the coaches' instructions and warnings.
- Do not leave, under any circumstances, the facilities without the authorization of a coach or monitor of the camp.
- Take care of the facilities and equipment that are at your disposal and avoid misusing it.
- Collaborate in placing, moving or collecting the equipment.
- Do not take things from classmates without their authorization.
- Do not bring valuables, or money, or jewelry. If you bring them you will not be able to use them during the activities. We are not responsible for thefts or losses.
- Mark your sportswear to avoid losses and confusion with those of other colleagues.
- No practical jokes, annoyances, fights, insults, ...
- Keep the facilities clean by using the bins when necessary.
- If you are taking any medication during the camp, do not forget to bring it with a note / authorization from your parent or guardian if you are under 18 years old.
- Concerning the daily departure time of the camp, neither the organization, nor monitors, nor coaches, nor collaborating staff, will be responsible for the participants, except for those children who have additional hours paid for extended stay at the camp facilities. In this case, this also applies to the completion of these additional hours paid for at the camp.
- Punctuality in the pick up time of the children.
- Not wearing the training gear will be a reason for not being able to participate in the training.

The breach of any of these rules, or any other unwritten rules having to do with basic respect, will be grounds for reproof or expulsion from the camp.
